

MURRAY MANAGER ONE OF FOUR HELD AFTER "DRY" RAID

Restaurant Thronged With Brilliant Crowd When Arrests Were Made.

Clashed with Volstead Law violator, but was connected with Murray's restaurant at No. 224 West 42d Street, were arrested to-day before Federal Commissioner Hitchcock. They are James H. Cox, Vice President and general manager of Murray's, who said he resided there; Charles H. Plunder, assistant manager, No. 1829 East 14th Street, Jersey City; William Kerridge, No. 216 West 22d Street, captain of waiters, and Abraham O'Brien, No. 122 10th Street, Long Island City, a waiter, who was alleged to have sold drinks to the "Flying Squadron" which raided the place.

When the Flying Squadron, headed by "Icky Binstein, Moss Smith and Herman Wittenberg, entered Murray's Saturday night it was thronged with a typical Broadway crowd of patrons. The agents evidently expected to make many arrests, for they had two patrol wagons standing outside. Music and dancing were being enjoyed by hundreds of patrons on the revolving dining floor. To-day Moss Smith exhibited a half-pint flask of whiskey, for which he said he had paid $5.

Cox and Plunder declared their arrest an outrage, and said they would carry the matter to Washington.

RUSTIC RUNS AMUCK; 5 DEAD

Stars Father and Three Neighbors; Later Kills Himself.

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 20.—A tragedy, the most brutal in the history of the County of Lunenburg, was enacted amid the rustic environment of the peaceful village of Sampson's Corner, near New Germany, early yesterday morning. Three men and one woman are dead as the result of the sudden desire to kill on the part of Havelock Velout, who choked Justice by taking his own life with the same rifle that had accounted for four victims less than a half an hour previous.

The victims of this ravage villager are Havelock Velout sr., father of the murderer; Archibald Bicey, his wife, and Almer Snyder, neighbors of the Velouts.

For some time Velout had given evidence that he was mentally unbalanced. Yesterday he went calmly about and with every evidence that his crime was premeditated. He was a giant physically, about thirty-three years old.

Milk That Is All Food and No Waste

Milk is $\frac{7}{8}$ water and $\frac{1}{8}$ solids. The solids give milk its character—its flavor—its food value. Remove the water and all the valuable part is left. Replace the water and it becomes liquid milk instantly—just as rich, as fresh, as delicious as the richest, creamiest country milk you ever drank.
